

Hi Mr. Aldrich!!!

Thank you so much for this past week. It was the experience of a lifetime and I hope to return if I am welcome. My younger sister has complained about how I have hardly stopped talking about camp since I came home! I am so grateful for the incredible opportunities that you have afforded me in such a short time.

Thanks to you, I have become a more confident and passionate person, and I have realized that I CAN and WILL make a difference. I cannot wait to start circulating the skills and knowledge that I have acquired this week, and I pledge to spread the word about your amazing institution. Also, thank you for the Facebook group page idea, I know we all want to keep in touch! Believe me, I am also in camp withdrawal :).

So, one more time (but certainly not the last time),

THANK YOU!!!!

Caroline
